The form is shaped like a house. It consists of a triangular roof and a rectangular base. The roof is divided into two sections, each labeled '#1'. The rectangular base is divided into three horizontal sections. The top section is further divided into two equal-width sections, labeled '#2' on the left and '#3' on the right. The middle section is labeled '#4' on both the left and right sides. The bottom section is a single wide section, labeled '#5' on both the left and right sides.
