Charlotte Prepares for Community Wide Homecoming Events

Charlotte High School will be celebrating homecoming the week of September 21 - September 26, and like last year, is excited to involve the community. The week will kick off on Sunday, September 21 from 1-3 pm as the classes and the teachers decorate the windows of the businesses downtown. Each class has a block, and throughout the week, community members can vote on which blocks they like best by making a donation to the class's chosen charity. The class that collects the most money for their charity will win points in the school spirit competition. The participating businesses, including the ones that are housing the collection boxes, are as follows (at press time; more businesses may be added):

Freshman –Allegra, Paul's Gun Shop, Jerry's Barber Shop, Eaton Pub, Eaton Place
Eaton Federal, The Players Club, Flamingo Tanning and Nails

The donation box will be placed at Allegra, and the freshmen will donate to the Eaton County Humane Society.

Sophomores - Edward Jones- Doug Freeman office, Oriole Hutt, The Barber Shop, Cottage Inn Pizza, What's Your Forte, Bill Shetenhelm CPA, Mikes Sports Page, The Man Cave, Kathy Cook, Zimmer & O'Deen Attorneys at Law, Smith & Buffmeyer Attorneys

The donation box will be placed at Cottage Inn Pizza, and the sophomores will donate to the Siren Shelter.

Juniors – Sparrow, IBIS Realty, The County Journal, Painless Dentistry, Bella Grande, Custom Home Interiors, B's Floral, Johnson Paint, Hen House

The location of the donation box has not yet been determined so please check the CPS web site for updates. The juniors will donate to Eaton County Meals on Wheels.

Seniors - Charlotte Lithograph, ATA , The Reading Place, Fay's Evelyn Bay, Re-max, Riley's Tax Service, Carl V. Reck Jewelers, Marty Latchaw CPA, Captain's Cabinets, Tropical Tanning, The County Gavel, Mid State Title, Teen Center (Cochran)

The donation box will be placed at Faye's Evelyn Bay with donations going to Relay for Life.

Teachers - Teen Center (Lawrence), Ameriprise Financial, The Yarn Garden, William Wise Attorney, Hungry Howie's, Dance Conservatory, The Shear Place, The City of Charlotte

The location of the donation box has not yet been determined so please check the CPS web site for updates. The teachers will donate to the Eaton Area Senior Center.

Capping off the week and the celebration will be a parade through the decorated downtown. It will begin at 5:00 pm on Friday, September 26, and it will run from the old junior high school to Cochran Avenue, and then north to the courthouse square. Then, at 7:00 pm, the football game will kick off against Jackson Parma Western. This is a great opportunity to show your Oriole Pride. Please come out and support CHS and the Charlotte community!
