In his nomination, Mr. Latty said: “Deb is a leader within our Food Service team and always leads by example. Deb’s positive attitude impacts others to do their best also....Deb is the kind of person that gets the job done and needs no supervision....I can always rely on her to come into work early when we are short and appreciate her willingness to cover anything that is needed.... She has done a great job and is committed to provide all children with high-quality meals.”

Mr. Paul Davis teaches Physical Education at Parkview Elementary. Mr. Davis was nominated by the Parkview School Improvement Team. In their nomination they wrote: “Paul is in his 40th year of teaching and has provided all elementary students with the love of exercise.....His calm voice and structured classroom strategies keep students safe, but always active during their gym time. Paul takes great care in making sure each child is included during class and their achievements celebrated....As a teacher of forty years, Paul’s legacy will live on in all that have known him from the football field and the classroom.”
