Charlotte High School senior, Emily Helfrich signed her letter of intent to attend Central Michigan University on a track scholarship to high jump next year. Emily has been a state qualifier in the high jump at Charlotte High School. This spring Emily hopes to make a return to the state meet as a senior. She is currently ranked 7th in the nation for this upcoming season for high school girls track and field.

Emily was joined by family and friends during the signing. Congratulations to Emily Helfrich!
