Charlotte Middle School Swim Team to Start Season at East Lansing Invitational

The Charlotte Middle School swim team is preparing to kick off a new season. Come check out what a great group of swimmers, and coaches that we have this year! The middle school season kicks off on December 13 in East Lansing, then travels to Waverly December 17, Holt on January 7, and Williamston on January 13. The Charlotte Middle School team is coached by volunteers Sarah Cool, Gregg Manns, and Steve Kineman along with athletes from the Charlotte Orioles High school swim team. Our Middle School swimmers gain great experience practicing and competing with local middle school teams and are well prepared for the ranks of Michigan high school swimming by the time they are freshman. This is the third year the middle school team from Charlotte has been practicing and competing, and the first year that Charlotte High School has both girls and boys varsity swim teams. Charlotte's swim programs are being built with experienced coaches and swimmers that are dedicated to perfecting their sport! Way to go Orioles!
