Second Season of High School Swimming Hits the Pool

The Charlotte Orioles girls' swim season is underway, and the first home meet is scheduled for the first day of school, Tuesday, September 8 at 6pm with Corunna. The beginning of the season marks the second year of swimming as a high school sport for Charlotte High School. The girls are led by returning team captain, Brooke Wood, as well as five returning letterwomen from last year. Along with Corunna, additional home meets include Thursday, September 17th with Alma and Tuesday, October 6th with Eaton Rapids.

“Last year, our team made significant improvements with our 9 swimmers,” said second year head coach, Dan Christian. “We have five freshman this year in addition to most of the returning swimmers from last year, and I’m excited to get the sophomore year of the program under way.” Along with the boys and girls high school swim team, the Dolphins Special Olympics team and the Middle School Swim team call Charlotte Aquatic Center home.
