CHARLOTTE ORIOLE WRESTLERS TAKE TO THE MAT

The Charlotte High School winter athletic season is off to a good start in 2016. One of the teams that is doing very well is the Varsity Wrestling Team. Varsity coach Bill Blair has brought on board former all state wrestler Chase Challender to work with the team and be the junior varsity head coach. Coach Challendar will bring a lot of energy and knowledge to help our younger wrestlers get ready to contribute to the varsity team.

So far this season, the wrestling team has some big wins under their belt. The Orioles have defeated a good Hastings program and notched their first conference win against Jackson Northwest. The Orioles look to make a strong run for a conference championship.

The varsity grapplers individually have done a nice job in some of their Saturday tournaments. As a team the Orioles went 1 and 4 at the Brighton Invite. Charlotte beat East Lansing and had a tough loss vs. Saline 38-37. Chris Fauson won 5 matches with no defeats at Brighton.

The varsity grapplers also competed at the Hastings invitational this past Saturday. The Orioles took second place overall. Chris Fauson and Jarrett Thorne took first at Hastings for their weight class. Collen Eaton, Ethan Lamachia, and Eric McConnel had second place finishes and Clayton Jones, Dan Doty, Anthony Williams, and Jeff Hilliard took home third place.

Good Luck to the Orioles for the remainder of their season! Come on out to support the Orioles at one of their home matches.
