ARTS FOR YOUTH ONSTAGE EXPERIENCE PRESENTS FAIRY TALE COURTROOM

Charlotte, MI, January 25, 2016 – Prepare for an evening of laughter, bad puns, groans and moans as your favorite nursery rhyme and fairy tale characters come to life on stage as they film the most popular television show in all of Far Far Away – The Fairy Tale Courtroom! Judge Lipner presides over the cases, and details may not be exactly as you know them or remember them. And in this special edition – you the audience are the jury! Is the Wicked Witch (alias Evil Queen) guilty or were her acts out of self defense? Will you send B. B. Wolf to the hoosegow? You hold their fate in your hands!

The Arts For Youth Onstage Experience provides all area students in grades 4 – 8 a chance to come together as a community for the study of theatre and to experience first-hand the art of theatre and gain the self-confidence and achievement of producing live entertainment to give back to the Charlotte Community. This year, over 40 local youth in are participating on stage and behind the scenes for this production.

Advance tickets are $8.00 Adult; $5.00 Student or Senior Citizen (ages 62 and up), and are available for purchase from the Charlotte Performing Arts Center Box Office at 378 State Street in Charlotte, MI or by phone at 517-541-5690. Normal box office hours are Monday – Friday from 9am to Noon. Tickets are also available at anytime on-line at www.charlotteperformingartscenter.com   At the door all seats will be $10.00.

The Arts for Youth programs are generously sponsored by Auto-Owners Insurance, Hayes Green Beach Memorial Hospital, Insty-Prints Downtown Lansing, Optimist International club of Charlotte and Friends of the Charlotte Performing Arts Center.
