CHARLOTTE HIGH SCHOOL WELCOMES NATALIE MARZONIE PARRA

Charlotte High School is proud to introduce Natalie Marzonie Parra as its new English language learner teacher. Natalie works with students who do not speak English as a first language to help them succeed in their classes and successfully communicate with their teachers and other students. Natalie has a rich background of experiences, as she has successfully taught English as a second language to students ranging in age from young children up through adults. She has a master's degree from Central Michigan University, a bachelor's degree from University of Michigan Flint, and certifications from the Interlingue School of Language and Centro Linguistico Dante Alighieri School in Rome, Italy. She chose CHS because she feels that the teaching methods and culture are outstanding and heading in a positive direction, and she enjoys working in a student centered environment. Her travels and experiences have prepared her well for her job at CHS, and she is an outstanding addition to the team! Welcome to the Oriole family Ms. Parra!
