The Accidentals come to CPAC November 17

The Charlotte Performing Arts Center is excited to host The Accidentals in concert on Saturday, November 17 @ 7:00 PM!

The Accidentals formed in Traverse City, Michigan in 2012 by Savannah Buist and Katie Larson, who were later joined by percussionist Michael Dause in 2014. The group features an eclectic blend of indie folk, jazz, bluegrass, rock, classical, and other genres, utilizing a wide variety of instruments that reflect the group's orchestral roots and electronic influences. The group was named one of “Yahoo! Music’s Top 10 Bands to Watch in 2017”.

Larson and Buist met as young musicians in 2011 at their public high school in Traverse City, Michigan. Larson, then 15, was a freshman cello player, and Buist, then 16, was a sophomore who played violin, and they teamed up for a class orchestra project. In 2012, they auditioned for and won a spot in the first-ever singer-songwriter major at the renowned Interlochen Center for the Arts, where they had formally created The Accidentals
