Charlotte High School Homecoming 2014!!

Charlotte High School, in partnership with the City of Charlotte, Charlotte Police Department, and the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce, is pleased to announce that there will be a homecoming parade downtown Charlotte on Friday, September 26th at 5:00 pm. The parade will run from the old junior high school on Horatio and north on Cochran to the courthouse square, and it will include the Charlotte High School homecoming court, marching band, clubs, and athletic teams. More information will be forthcoming about additional events will take place during the week leading up to the parade and the football game against Jackson Parma Western. Please come out, show your Oriole Pride, and support Charlotte High School and our students. Go Orioles!
