

August 30, 2018

Hello, Parkview Parents,

Happy long Labor Day Weekend! Today is the last day of school for this week and we will return next Tuesday, September 4th to start another great week at Parkview.

On our return, we will begin Reading Logs. We will be explaining to the students next week their responsibilities as a good reader at Parkview and the need to practice to achieve the level of reader that we all want our students to be. Also, on Friday, September 7th, it is wear your western gear to celebrate Frontier Days here in Charlotte.

You will find in your Friday Folder a special letter about a new before school procedure that will require any adult wishing to enter our building before our beginning start bell to walk with your child, will now need sign in on our check in computer. We are offering an opportunity for you to have a permanent tag made that will allow you to not need to sign in each time you enter the building, but will indicate that you have a completed background check with us. Please read this letter carefully for details.

Please send in emergency cards and all forms needing your signature that were sent home at the beginning of the school. The cards are our link to you in case of an emergency.

Have a very restful, long weekend! KIM