Hello, Parkview Parents,

Thank you very much to all of you who came out last night to the Big Boy for our Celebrity Server Night. It was an awesome turnout and the PTO appreciates your generous tips and Big Boy's donation back to our organization. Every little bit helps to allow us to provide field trips, assemblies, free family events, carnival, and teacher projects to be funded. Thank you to all of the staff members also who tried out a new job.

Just a reminder there is no school on Monday. I know you will all feel sorry for all of the staff as we spend our day learning as you are playing in the snow on one of our state mandated professional development days. We will see you again on Tuesday morning at the regular time. A great activity on Monday would be to read and put some extra minutes on those reading logs.

Next Friday, the 25th, progress reports will be coming home. Can you believe it that we are halfway through the school year and it is time to show you the great learning your child has done this year so far? Please take the time to read through all the important paperwork that will be in that special envelope next week in your child's Friday Folder.

Enjoy the snow this weekend...finally! KIM
