Hello, Parkview Parents,
Just a reminder that tomorrow is our Youth For Arts CPAC Day...finally since our snow day delay! All Parkview Students will be traveling by CPS buses to the CPAC to see the play, "My Alien." Thank you to our great PTO for sponsoring us to go and see this professional play on stage. Due to the need to leave mid-day, we are moving lunch up to earlier in the day and there will only be one choice for lunch tomorrow-sack lunch. Your child is also welcome to bring their own sack lunch if they would prefer. It should be a great time for all.

Reading logs are due on Friday! We have a great event planned to "Read Under the Lights" in the afternoon on Friday with our finger lights that the students will be bringing home.

Friday is also our district "Orange and Black" day! Let's all show our pride.

Below you will also find many notes from various organizations and teaching staff. Please consider filling out the Safe Schools Parent Survey, which could bring a significant amount of grants to our school for safety needs. Also, you will find the Parkview Parent Survey attached and this will also be available during Parent/Teacher Conference nights. This confidential survey helps our staff build the Parkview School Improvement Plan for the next school year. Your input is invaluable to this process.

Enjoy the sun...>KIM
